Ever wanted to find out what performing is all about? Join Tarsha Cameron & colleagues who will guide participants on a journey to build confidence & performance skills, ensemble collaboration and much more as you explore improvisation and drama, singing, text, music and choreography. This year-long program will provide a supportive creative environment to learn and grow! Each term culminates in an informal sharing for parents & friends, whilst working towards a performance at the end of Term Four 2024. Newcomers welcome!

Tarsha is a cabaret artist, writer, director, visual artist, actor and singer who is also a speech therapist. Having written, directed and staged multiple works across theatre and cabaret, Tarsha embodies creative production. She knows how it makes one thrive. She has been trained in voice, music and drama within tertiary institutions and has taught these artforms to young people with significant mental health and communication challenges. She loves the capacity the Arts has for building confidence, social skills, and resilience as well as supporting creative skill development. As a former performer in Ink Pot Arts shows, Tarsha is excited to join the creative team. One of her passions is supporting young people to find their unique voice.

This program is proudly sponsored by the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra & Adelaide Festival

Bookings essential: <https://events.humanitix.com/floods-of-fire-theatre-devising-workshops>

Join theatre-makers Lucy Haas-Hennessy and Evie Leonard in free after school workshops to create a short performance that will be presented at Floods of Fire in the 2024 Adelaide Festival! Continuing on from Create4Adelaide's 2023 workshops, Ink Pot Arts Inc is offering free theatre devising workshops for high school students in the Adelaide Hills and Fleurieu region. These workshops will result in creating short performance pieces based on climate change. The performance pieces will be presented on Saturday

March 16th at the University of Adelaide campus at FLOODS OF FIRE: Our Voices Our Dreams, an event created by the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra for the 2024 Adelaide Festival.

With each workshop running for 90 minutes, participants will explore the fundamentals of devising theatre through an environmental lens. They'll learn from some of South Australia's best emerging theatre-makers on how to create a new work collaboratively, have fun whilst doing so, and have a chance to make their voices heard.

Venue: Hills Family Church, 132 Princes Highway, Nairne

Cost Term One (5 sessions): $50 + $30 subscription

Concession available on request

Bookings essential: quill@inkpot.com.au or 0429 673 327

This project is proudly supported by the Mount Barker District Council

Love to sing in the shower? Croon a tune in the car? Dance in the kitchen? Come and join with others who like to sing & move for the sheer joy of it! Lynn will lead you through popular songs ranging from the 50s and 60s (think Everly Brothers, Elvis Presley, The Beach Boys) to the music of ABBA; through traditional melodies (Green Grow the Rushes Oh), to ballads, songs from the musicals and right through to belt-it-out tunes like I will Survive and Stand By Me. Along the way there will be singing tips and techniques, but the emphasis will be on fun, laughter and having a good old sing!

Lynn has been sharing the joy of singing with both adults and children since the 1980s in formal choirs and informal singing groups, both as a leader and as a participant. She has conducted musicals for the Murray Bridge Players and Singers and has appeared in musical theatre productions with Stirling Players and Therry Dramatic Society. She loves the way that music and singing can connect people of all ages.

Cost: $170.00 + $30 annual Ink Pot subscription

Bookings: quill@inkpot.com.au

This advanced workshop focuses on developing musicality, finger picking & strumming techniques. It will teach you how to integrate barre chords into your songs, extending your musical repertoire. While preparing for community gigs, microphone techniques will also be offered. The group gets a huge amount of enjoyment from performing & we warmly welcome newcomers!

Max Tulysewski is an Adelaide-based musician, composer, producer & teacher. He first began experimenting with the ukulele in 2011 & has brought it with him into a variety of different musical situations both on stage & in the studio. He is a highly skilled and much-appreciated teacher of uke – come along and get inspired!
